

THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

ALL THE NEWS THAT'S FIT TO PRINT

VOL. XXXIV

CLOVERPORT, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 5, 1910.

8 Pages

NO. 26

LOVELY WOMAN DIES AT IRVINGTON.

Mrs. Eliza Jolly A Victim of Heart Trouble—Funeral Held.

Yesterday At Hardinsburg.

LEAVES FOUR CHILDREN.

Mrs. Eliza Jolly died very suddenly of heart failure at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter J. Piggott, of Irvington.

The funeral was held yesterday at Hardinsburg.

Mrs. Jolly was one of the best known women of Breckinridge County. She was a devoted member of the Methodist church and a greatly loved character. Besides Mrs. Piggott, she leaves two other daughters, Mrs. Nannie Wathen, of Louisville, and Mrs. Rube Miller, of Indianapolis, and one son, Everett Jolly.

Delightful Reception.

Mrs. James Skillman received the members of the Girls' club and their escorts Saturday night for the pleasure of her son, Wm. White and Virgil Fontaine. Those who assisted in receiving were: Mrs. Fontaine, Mrs. Heyser, Mrs. Hardin, Miss Florida Hardin, Miss Virginia McGroarty. Among the men guests were: Messrs. M. Denham, Late Behen, Frank Plank, David Phelps, Harry Newsom, Allen Pierce, J. D. Babbage, E. G. McDonald, Dr. Ray Boone, Dr. H. Boone and Oscar Dickey.

Wonderful Edition.

The Louisville Times' twenty-fifth anniversary edition was a marvelous newspaper. It was big and great. One hundred and eight pages filled with live interesting matter. The demand for it could not be supplied.

Holt Place Sold.

The Holt farm has been sold to Mr. Stillwell, of Illinois. The price was $24,000. Mr. Gibson will remain on the place for two years.

A New Deputy Sheriff.

Sam Bassett, of Union Star, was sworn in as deputy sheriff of the Union Star district last Monday in place of Mr. Dowell, who was elected as one of the deputies. Mr. Dowell's health would not permit his serving.

Operation Successful.

Dr. R. W. Meador, Custer, went to Louisville last week with W. J. Jordan, who lost an eye about two weeks ago. Mr. Jordan was nailing a hoop in lining of a horsehead of tobacco. Mr. Jordan had his eye removed and a new one put in.

Critically Ill.

There is much apprehension over the condition of Mrs. Joe T. Mattingly and friends are greatly distressed over her critical illness.

MEET NEXT

SATURDAY SURE

Tobacco Growers And Dealers Have Misunderstanding—Sale Declared Void.

TROUBLE IN GRADING.

Breckinridge, Jan. 4.—[Special.]—The tobacco sale that was made here recently to a Louisville party was declared off today on account of a misunderstanding about the grades. Two grades were appointed to grade and receive the tobacco. The families wanted in case the grades could not agree to call in a third man. The buyer would not agree to this and the sale was knocked in the head.

It is requested now that all persons, who have tobacco to sell, meet at Hardinsburg next Saturday to see what arrangements can be made for its disposal.

Work of The Chicago Commercial Club.

From Charles W. Eliot's "A Study of the New Plan of Chicago" in the January Century.

For three years the Commercial Club, of Chicago, has been spending much time and money on the preparation of a comprehensive plan for the improvement of Chicago as a center of industry and traffic, and as a wholesome and enjoyable place of residence for 2,000,000 of people, or, indeed, for four or five millions. It is a work which demanded intelligence, public spirit, and foresight, all in a high degree; for it deals with all the physical and moral conditions necessary to the future success of a great American city which has a central position, great natural facilities for steam and electric transportation, and ample opportunities for the artificial development of the means of a productive and enjoyable life for millions of people.

Mrs. Skillman Remembered.

The members of the Ladies Aid Society presented Mrs. Chas. B. Skillman with a lovely remembrance Saturday before she left for her new home at Morganfield. Mr. and Mrs. Skillman and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, went Sunday. Their home will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. David Phelps.

LAFE BEHEN

Made Foreman at Machine Shops In This City—Deserving Young Man Has Happy Year.

Lafe Behen, of this city, and a most capable machinist in rail-road work, was made foreman at the L. H. & St. L. shops at this city New Year's Day. He succeeds Mr. Jas. Cordrey, who resigned recently. Mr. Behen has been busy teleiving congratulations.

Miss Elizabeth Babbage.

Mrs. H. L. Stidder was hostess at a most interesting New Year party Friday night in honor of Miss Elizabeth Babbage on the place for two years.

BEWLEYVILLE.

Miss Ada Stith went to Louisville to meet Santa Claus and at this writing has not been heard from.

Alberta and Wathan Drury were at the week end house-party at the home of Miss Jessie Kendall, of Webster.

Mrs. W. W. Keith entertained to a sumptuous dinner a few of the young people December, 26th in honor of her son, Ray's 30th anniversary. They returned to Los Angeles, Cal., after a 60 day's stay with the home folks.

James P. Drury, of Brandenburg, and C. D. Frakes, of Irvington, spent several days during Christmas with C. H. Drury.

Bob and Eugene Jordan returned to Los Angeles, Cal., Christmas.

Read Newsom Gardner's great clearance sale ad in this issue.

Ex-Sheriff Miller is making his last call for taxes before advertising. Better see him and settle and save cost.

Sam Gross left on Christmas day for Weston, Texas, where he will spend the winter with his brother, Jesse.

W. A. Stith and family, of Guston, and Mrs. Carr D. Frakes, of Irvington, spent Sunday with relatives at Bewleyville.

Mrs. Minnie Stith, of Chicago, came Sunday for a short stay with relatives, after which she will return to Washington City.

Miss Esther Albright, of Lakeland, spent Christmas with her father, H. J. Albright.

Ben Clarkson, of Big Spring, was here Sunday.

If you want the best flour buy the Lewisport BEST patent flour.

Murray Relatives

Meet in Louisville.

New Year's day at the home of Mr. Logan C. Murray in Louisville, a dinner party was given to the following relatives: Mr. and Mrs. David Fairleigh, Mrs. George Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. David Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ferry, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Beard and Mrs. A. R. Fisher.

BRECKENRIDGE BANK HAS NEW BOARD

Of Directors O. T. Skillman, succeeds Chas. B. Skillman as Assistant Cashier—Mr. Jarboe Book-keeper.

CUSTOMERS WELL PLEASED.

Thursday the semi-annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Breckinridge Bank was held and a new board was elected as follows: A. B. Skillman, W. H. Bowmar, Conrad Simons, John C. Jarboe, F. L. Lightfoot, A. R. Fisher, and O. T. Skillman.

Chas. B. Skillman, who for many years was assistant cashier of this bank last Sunday for Morganfield to accept a similar position with the People's Bank and Trust Company, Orville T. Skillman, twenty years associated with the bank as book-keeper and perfectly familiar with all its operations was elected his successor, J. Felix Jarboe is employed as book-keeper.

The Breckinridge Bank which was named for the county and established in 1872, has thirty eight years of Louisville dealing to its credit and has passed through three panics with out receiving payment on a single legitimate claim to its full amount. At the Director's meeting the usual semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent was declared. The many customers of the bank are perfectly pleased with the new changes, notwithstanding they regretted the leave of Mr. Chas. Skillman.

WELL DESERVED.

The Praise That Comes From Thankful Cloverport People.

One kidney remedy never fails. Cloverport people rely upon it. That remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills. Cloverport testimony proves it always reliable.

J. C. Westerholt, High St., Cloverport, Ky., says: "Two years ago I did not think it possible that I could ever be well again, in fact, I had settled up my affairs. I cannot describe the misery I endured from pains through my back and whenever I stooped, they became so sharp that it really felt as if someone were thrusting a knife into my kidneys. I was often very dizzy, dark spots floated before my eyes and I had to grasp something to keep from falling. My joints became swollen to twice their natural size and I lost weight rapidly than I was a skeleton. The doctors' medicines or the many guaranteed cures that I tried, did not help me and finally it was my good fortune to hear about Doan's Kidney Pills. I immediately procured a box at Fisher's drug store and I was greatly surprised at the results received. Before I had taken the contents of the second box, there was a marked improvement and I continued using them until completely cured. I am now as well as any man in this county and I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50¢. Foster—Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

FINE CONCERT

Given By The Colored Folks For The Benefit Of Church-Elevating Entertainment.

What is much better than drinking and gambling, are the high-class entertainments given by the colored people and they should be encouraged in their efforts.

The concert given by Annie Roberts, New Year's night, was a decided success. Those who took part in the play, "Christmas Bells", were: Annie Roberts, Mary Brown, Susie Roberts, Elmer Dent, Carrie Crittenden, Lucy Walker, Marie Adams, Frank Roberts, C. L. Singleton, Shelly Hardin, Bill Brown, John Hardin and Alex Franco. Eddie and Eddie, a pair nicely dressed, were the stars of the show.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bradford, were the guest of Mrs. J. H. Gardner last week.

The net proceeds at the door were $10, for the benefit of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bradford and their wife have ever seen.

NEWS FROM HARDINSBURG.

Educational And Social Notes.

Personal And News Items.

Lodge Has Big Meeting Next Week

MRS. MARGARET BOARD DEAD.

If you want the best flour buy the Lewisport BEST patent flour.

Dr. Mathur visited at D. C. Moore's at Glendale last week.

Clifton Howard, of McDaniels, was in town Saturday, leaving that night for Arkansas, where he will visit a brother for a few days before going to Southern California in quest of health.

Willie Hall, the new jailer, has two prisoners, Staples, of Irvington, and Johnson, of Glendale. Both colored.

Miss Mildred Moorman, of Glendale, entered the county High School Monday.

Earl Harned and Stanley Gray, of Custer, entered school here Monday.

Dwight Willett, son of Rev. J. J. Willett made a pleasing address to the school Monday before leaving to resume his studies in college.

Breckenridge Lodge No. 67, F. & A. M., will meet in call communication Monday night, January 10, to do third degree work with Jno. W. Cowles, Grand Master of the State, and Robert E. Woods, Jeff Adams, Superintendent of the Home, J. H. Dammeyer, Past Master of Louisville Lodge, Albert P. Gans, Past Master of Louisville Lodge, Charles H. Boden and other prominent Masons of Louisville will be present and all stations will be filled by Past Masters of Louisville Lodge No. 40. All brothers of sister lodges are cordially invited to be present. Jesse Whitworth, Master; Andrew Driskill, Sect.

Mrs. Margaret Board, after several years of failing health, died Saturday night at the home of her sister, Mrs. Richard Shellenback, with whom she had made her home for some time. She was the daughter of Col. Charles Hambleton, who for years was proprietor of the Brick Hotel in Hardinsburg. Born in 1836, she was beautiful and popular the belle of the antebellum days, a great favorite whose modest mance and kindly heart won and held all whom she met. She was four times married and was widowed several years before her death. Her husbands were: Logan Basham, Marcus Pool, Ben Hardin and Elijah Board. Her remains were laid to rest in the old Hardinsburg cemetery at 10 o'clock Monday morning, Dr. Arthur Mather conducting the funeral exercises.

New officers have taken charge of their offices and for four years the county's affairs, with the exception of the Circuit Court Clerk's work, will be administered by the Republicans.

Levi Voyles, our new town Marshal, is uniformed like a policeman and is here to make good and preserve order among the people.

Pay your taxes now and save costs.

If you owe your taxes and had better pay now and save costs. Ex-Sheriff Miller says it is his last call before advertising.

Chint Royal, of Leitchfield, was here last week.

W. H. Carman, of Bonnieville, was here Friday.

Floyd and H. C. Lewis, of New Albany, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lewis Sunday.

Miss Minnie Reading, of Evansville, was the guest of Miss Tilda Mercer last week.

Miss Clara Lee Snyder, who has been visiting relatives in St. Louis, Chicago, and Paducah since August, has returned to Louisville.

Dwight Willett, of Berea College, left Monday after a week with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Willett.

Mrs. Blanche Read was in Louisville Saturday.

Miss Nita Beard returned to Louisville Friday after spending the holidays with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Beard.

Mrs. E. E. Sutton, of Crescent Hill, was the guest of Mrs. J. H. Gardner last week.

Miss Judith Walls has resigned as teacher at Little Union.

A. B. Carr, of Union Star, has resigned as teacher at that place. There are several more months to be taught.

The teacher at Cave Spring resigned. It is reported that Gathrie Tucker will teach the remaining part of the term.

W. H. Carman, of Bonnieville, was here Friday.

Floyd and H. C. Lewis, of New Albany, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lewis Sunday.

Miss Minnie Reading, of Evansville, was the guest of Mrs. J. H. Gardner last week.

Miss Clara Lee Snyder, who has been visiting relatives in St. Louis, Chicago, and Paducah since August, has returned to Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bradford, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. King.

Warren Alexander, of the firm of Kasy & Alexander, has sold his dwelling and moved to his farm.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Meador and daughter, Mrs. M. H. Beard.

Roy E. Moorman left Wednesday to

Von Bulow of Gentle Nature.

From "Modjeska's Memoirs" in the January Century.

When first Von Bulow was introduced to me I almost avoided him on account of the many stories of his baseness, his erratic disposition, his offhand treatment of the public, his brutality to trained musicians, and many other crimes of this sort. Our closer acquaintance with the great pianist, I experienced some astonishment to find him a man of strong mind, yet gentle nature, enthusiastic, artistic, to the finger-tips, and well-versed, though of an exceedingly nervous temperament. Frail as he might have been at times, but I am sure that the moments of ungovernable anger were always provoked by people's stupidity, or by some unpardonable mistake in musical execution.

For a Good Time

Join the Epworth League. Honestly, the Cloverport boys and girls never had a better time any place or in a more refined way than they had in the Methodist church parlor Friday night. Fourteen courses were served to forty guests.

The League is open to all the young people of the city and is anxious for more members. Besides having pleasure themselves, they did quite a little work of charity during the holidays.

For a Good Time

Join the Epworth League. Honestly, the Cloverport boys and girls never had a better time any place or in a more refined way than they had in the Methodist church parlor Friday night. Fourteen courses were served to forty guests.

The League is open to all the young people of the city and is anxious for more members. Besides having pleasure themselves, they did quite a little work of charity during the holidays.

For a Good Time

Join the Epworth League. Honestly, the Cloverport boys and girls never had a better time any place or in a more refined way than they had in the Methodist church parlor Friday night. Fourteen courses were served to forty guests.

The League is open to all the young people of the city and is anxious for more members. Besides having pleasure themselves, they did quite a little work of charity during the holidays.

"LITTLE NEMO."

The Most Extraordinary Theatrical Attraction of the Year

In Louisville Beginning

Monday January 10.

The most extraordinary attraction of the year, Klaw & Erlanger's great musical comedy, "Little Nemo," will be seen in Louisville at Macauley's Theatre beginning Monday night, Jan. 10th, the engagement being limited to one week, with matinees Wednesday and Saturday. This big production was the sensation of the year last season in New York, Boston and Philadelphia.

"Little Nemo" is in three acts and twelve scenes, and it is the biggest musical comedy that has ever been presented in the world. It takes over 200 performers to play it.

No one should miss seeing this wonderful production, which eclipses all others, and cost more than $100,000, to stage.

Word was received here yesterday that Prof. Joel Pike is suffering from an attack of grippe. And is confined to his home in Hardinsburg. Mrs. Pike is carrying on his work at the school without interruption, however, it is hoped his condition is not serious.

Miss Burn's Tea.

Miss Lucretia Rich was the complimented guest of a most attractive tea given by Miss Jeannette Burn Saturday afternoon.

visit friends at Knoxville and at Winchester, Tennessee, before resuming his studies at Center College, Danville.

Prof. Martin's Normal is advertised to open here February 7th.

Dr. W. A. Walker spent last week in Louisville.

Hon. Gus Brown left for Frankfort Sunday to present at the opening of the legislature. He was accompanied by his son, Murray, who was elected to a Page ship in the Kentucky State Senate, of which Mr. Brown is a member.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Clifton Howard, the veteran teacher of McDaniels neighborhood, has resigned his position at Beech Hill to seek the healthful climate of California. Lonnie F. Carville will complete his school.

Miss Judith Walls has resigned as teacher at Little Union.

A. B. Carr, of Union Star, has resigned as teacher at that place. There are several more months to be taught.

The teacher at Cave Spring resigned.

It is reported that Gathrie Tucker will teach the remaining part of the term.

ROSETTA.

Mrs. Claycomb, of Irrington, is visiting her brother James Claycomb, this week. barrel Pines has bought property and moved to Louisville.

J. W. White spent Sunday with a. P. Drury.

Howard Drury and Charles Lockard went to Louisville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Triplett; are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. King.

Warren Alexander, of the firm of Kasy & Alexander, has sold his dwelling and moved to his farm.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Meador and daughter, Mrs. M. H. Beard.

Roy E. Moorman left Wednesday to

NEW COUNCIL

Sworn In Monday Night—Tossey Re-elected Clerk.

Chas. May, Tax Collector.

The old city council wound up its business last Monday night and the new council was sworn in. James Lewis, Chas. Hook, L. T. Reed, Ed Whitehead, Henry Yeager and Henry Solbrig make up the new board.

Henry Solbrig was re-elected clerk.

Tom Tousay was re-elected clerk.

Floyd De Haven, marshal, Chas. May, tax collector, and M. Weatherholt, treasurer.

J. A. Barry was sworn in as Mayor and presided over the new board.

Electric Bitters

Succes when everything else fails. In nervous prostration and female weakness they are the supreme remedy, as thousands have testified. FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AND STOMACH TROUBLE it is the best medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter.

DR. H. J. BOONE Permanent Dentist

Dr. Owen's Office, Main Street. Hours: 8 to 12 a.m. 1 to 5 p.m. [Cloverport, Ky.]

CLOVERPORT PLANING MILL

GREGORY CO., Prop.

Cloverport, Kentucky

Doors, Sash, Blinds, all Kinds Mill Work, Good
Material and Workmanship.
Shingles, Laths, Lime, Hair,
all the best brands Roofing.

See Us Before You
Buy

Prices Reasonable

FOR SALE!

A number of Farms, different Sizes and Prices.

The Bank of Hardinsburg & Trust Co.

H. DEH. MOORMAN,
Attorney at Law.

HARDINSBURG, KY.
We are in the position of offering a large number of farms, different sizes and prices. Write to us
for full information.

STYLISH, COMFORTABLE
Tailor Made Clothes

All the latest fashions in men's Tuxedos, Tailored Suits, Trousers,
Capes, etc. We are dealers in men's hats, etc. Write to us
for full information.

J. H. HUNSCHE,
Copper, May & Co., Cloth Importers.

We Buy
FURS
Hides and Wool

Furs, Fallow, Bear, Fox, Claws,
Golden Seal, Yellow Root, May Apple,
Wild Ginger, etc. We are dealers established in 1856. Over 200 a country towns and cities. Write to us
for full information.

M. Sabel & Sons,
229 E. Market St., LOUISVILLE, KY.

Wanted Them Labeled.

There are two or three pairs of fox
hounds in one of the English shrines who was greatly angered by the awkwardness of one of the gentlemen who invariably rode over the hounds. At one of the meets the M. E. H. rode up to the awkward rider and told him to quit riding them. The rider said, "My dear sir, there are two dogs in the pack today, Samp and Tatters, which I am especially fond of, and I would esteem it a favor if you would kindly kill or maim them with your horse's hoofs."

"Certainly, my dear fellow," replied Mr. So-and-so, "but as I do not know them, will you be kind enough to put tags on them for me?"

SUB-GRADE MAKING.

Treatment of This Important Factor in Road Building.

KIND OF MATERIAL TO USE.

Nothing but the best obtainable,
says Highway Commissioner—Surfacing is also a Prominent Feature That Demands Strict Attention.

A well built road's a well constructed house, at least in its principle. Both will have a similar base, a tight roof and a dry cellar. So, a road must have the ability to sustain and hold up into position it should occupy the wearing surface of the road,
whether it be two inches or two feet in depth. Any yielding of the sub-grade will be fatal to the road. The whole question of dust laying and road preservative requirements of the hour is simply relegated to a secondary position when compared with this very important factor of construction, and the remarkable aspect of this important part of road building is that it is not so much the expense, for the

SEEING THE GRADE MADE FOR YOU
From Good Roads Magazine, New York.

same principle can be adopted in the simple turning of a road so that which will have to be employed in the most expensive construction that we are called upon to build today.

The first principle to follow in every case is to provide a good sub-grade and a good base, after which we then take up the question of sub-grade, or foundation upon which to build your road. I have found the best material with which to construct a subgrade is sand or gravel. Disintegrated rock, broken stone, and light loam make a capital sub-grade.

Sprinkling the sand before rolling using a light roller before using the steam roller or lightening the roller by reflecting the boiler of one-half its water capacity is a great assistance to driving the road, as sand will not adhere to the roller, the sand will be held in the sub-grade firm. A little subgrade placed on top of the sand is a very good plan. This will prevent the material from being pushed ahead of the roller, and it will make a good sub-grade of sand or gravel.

Slithing the sub-grade is sometimes permitted by contractors, with the result that they do not gain anything, for the contractor has to pay the end an increased expense owing to the fact that it will be a greater shrinkage in the stone.

The wheel contractor is the man who will spend more time with his 15 cents an hour help in forming the sub-grade and thereby require less stone or gravel and other incidental expenses. This is often the reason why the cost of stone per mile has been largely exceeded by the wheel contractor for the contractor. This is very easily demonstrated by taking the cost of the stone per ton with freight, the haul from the cars, the time consumed in paying the stone on the road, to say nothing about the expense of watering and rolling required to get the road into a perfect bond—firm and unyielding.

But you will ask naturally, "Is not the road better by reason of the fact that 'you stone has been used'?" Not at all. This would be true if a uniform depth of stone were used, but in some places there may be four inches of stone, while in other places there may be eight inches. The influence of the roller is not uniform where the sub-grade is not uniformly hard and firm. Wherever there is an irregular depth of stone the road will develop a weakness because the presence of the roller on the road has not been uniform.

You must have a good, well built, substantial foundation, as well as a good surface—no roof to your road. I do not mean that the road ever becomes an accomplished fact until this is an important and necessary adjunct to
a good road—the foundation—is taken

Antedating the surface must be directive to your road, then the construction of the road must be done in such a manner that it will not be an accomplished fact until this is an important and necessary adjunct to
a good road—the foundation—is taken

SUB-GRADE MAKING.

Nervous

"I was very nervous," writes Mrs. Mollie Mire, of Carrollton, Ky., "had palpitation of the heart, and was irregular.

"On the advice of Mrs. Hattie Cain I took 2 bottles of Cardui and it did me more good than any medicine I ever took.

"I am 44 years old and the change has not left me, but I am lots better since taking Cardui."

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Cardui is advertised and sold by its loving friends. The lady who advised Mrs. Mire to take Cardui, had herself been cured of serious female trouble, by Cardui, so she knew what Cardui does.

If Cardui cured Mrs. Cain and Mrs. Mire, it surely will cure you too.

Won't you try it?

Please do.

COOKING THE TURKEY.

How to Do It Successfully and in Many Different Styles.

Sometimes a family has several turkeys sent as presents at Yuletide, and it is inconvenient to have them all cooked alike in the same way, so the roasting form. To help the housewife in her cookery selection the following recipes for disposing of the fowl are given:

Turkey Roasted Turkish Style.—Prepare the turkey for the stuffing. Wash a cupful of rice through several waters, parboil and drain it, add a dozen large chestnuts, peeled and chopped; half a cupful of washed and dried currants, and a cupful of dried cherries, all washed and drained. Season to taste with salt and pepper and add a pinch of cinnamon. Put four ounces of butter in a saucepan and melt slowly, then pour over the stuffing mixture, add the herbs, mix well and stuff the turkey. Roast in usual way. Serve a clear brown gravy with it when done.

Turkey Stuffed With Oysters.—Prepare as for roasting and make stuffing as follows: Take a cupful of bread and soak it in a cupful of milk and add oyster crackers. Add the liquor from five dozen small oysters, two well beaten eggs and half a cupful of warmed butter and a few tablespoonsful of cream. Mix in the oysters and salt and pepper to taste. Fill the turkey cavity with the mixture and stuff well when they absorb the juices of the bird. Roast the same as turkey with new chestnut dressing.

Roast Turkey à la Almendras.—Slice and draw a young turkey, wipe inside with damp cloth and dust with little salt and pepper. Make stuffing as follows: Soak 15 small oysters in a cupful of milk, add a few tablespoonsful of cream and a few drops of nutmeg. Spread the oysters in a pie dish, turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Stewed Turkey With Noodles.—Slice, draw and truss the bird, turn over in the legs. Put some clear bacon fat in a large steamer. When hot put in the turkey, cover the bird with the slices of bacon and turn over frequently. Then pour enough of the cream over the oysters to cool, then mix with a pound of finely chopped fresh pork tenderloin. Season with a level tablespoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg and a teaspoonful of thyme. Add the yolks of two beaten eggs and mix well packed together till the turkey is directed.

Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Ry.

TIME TABLE

Corrected to Nov. 15, 1909

Daily	145		143		141		Stations	146		142		144		148
	Daily	Daily	Daily	Daily	Daily	Daily		Daily
9 21	4 40	8 40	10 21	12 55	1 40	1 40	Louisville	Ar	2 13	12 55	1 40	1 40	1 40	1 40	1 40
9 22	4 41	8 41	10 22	12 56	1 41	1 41	Bethel	Br	2 14	12 56	1 41	1 41	1 41	1 41	1 41
9 23	4 42	8 42	10 23	12 57	1 42	1 42	Brown	Br	2 15	12 57	1 42	1 42	1 42	1 42	1 42
9 24	4 43	8 43	10 24	12 58	1 43	1 43	Calvert	Br	2 16	12 58	1 43	1 43	1 43	1 43	1 43
9 25	4 44	8 44	10 25	12 59	1 44	1 44	Campbell	Br	2 17	12 59	1 44	1 44	1 44	1 44	1 44
9 26	4 45	8 45	10 26	12 60	1 45	1 45	Cloverport	Br	2 18	12 60	1 45	1 45	1 45	1 45	1 45
9 27	4 46	8 46	10 27	12 61	1 46	1 46	Cochran	Br	2 19	12 61	1 46	1 46	1 46	1 46	1 46
9 28	4 47	8 47	10 28	12 62	1 47	1 47	Craighead	Br	2 20	12 62	1 47	1 47	1 47	1 47	1 47
9 29	4 48	8 48	10 29	12 63	1 48	1 48	Craighead	Br	2 21	12 63	1 48	1 48	1 48	1 48	1 48
9 30	4 49	8 49	10 30	12 64	1 49	1 49	Craighead	Br	2 22	12 64	1 49	1 49	1 49	1 49	1 49
9 31	4 50	8 50	10 31	12 65	1 50	1 50	Craighead	Br	2 23	12 65	1 50	1 50	1 50	1 50	1 50
9 32	4 51	8 51	10 32	12 66	1 51	1 51	Craighead	Br	2 24	12 66	1 51	1 51	1 51	1 51	1 51
9 33	4 52	8 52	10 33	12 67	1 52	1 52	Craighead	Br	2 25	12 67	1 52	1 52	1 52	1 52	1 52
9 34	4 53	8 53	10 34	12 68	1 53	1 53	Craighead	Br	2 26	12 68	1 53	1 53	1 53	1 53	1 53
9 35	4 54	8 54	10 35	12 69	1 54	1 54	Craighead	Br	2 27	12 69	1 54	1 54	1 54	1 54	1 54
9 36	4 55	8 55	10 36	12 70	1 55	1 55	Craighead	Br	2 28	12 70	1 55	1 55	1 55	1 55	1 55
9 37	4 56	8 56	10 37	12 71	1 56	1 56	Craighead	Br	2 29	12 71	1 56	1 56	1 56	1 56	1 56
9 38	4 57	8 57	10 38	12 72	1 57	1 57	Craighead	Br	2 30	12 72	1 57	1 57	1 57	1 57	1 57
9 39	4 58	8 58	10 39	12 73	1 58	1 58	Craighead	Br	2 31	12 73	1 58	1 58	1 58	1 58	1 58
9 40	4 59	8 59	10 40	12 74	1 59	1 59	Craighead	Br	2 32	12 74	1 59	1 59	1 59	1 59	1 59

THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS,

JNO. D. BABBAGE SONS' PUBLISHING CO.

Issued Every Wednesday.

Subscription Price $1.00 a year in advance.

CARDS OF THANKS over five lines charged for at the rate of 10 cents per line.

OBITUARIES charged for at the rate of 5 cents per line. Money in advance.

Examine the label on your paper. If it is not correct please notify us.

When ordering a change in the address subscribers should give their old as well as the new address.

EIGHT PAGES.

CLOVERPORT, KY., WEDNESDAY, JAN. 5, 1910

Since the Republicans have been in charge of affairs at Frankfort for the last two years, they have run the state in debt nearly million of dollars. This was the case when Bradley was Governor, and it was some time after he went out before the Democratic administration under Mr. Beckham got the debt paid off. The Legislature convenes at Frankfort this week, and it is said that Gov. Wilson will ask that body to issue bonds to the amount of a million of dollars to meet the present deficit.

Judge Henry DeHaven Moorman, who stepped down and out of the County Judge's office in this county last Monday, was one of the best Judges the county has ever had. He was a man who did things and had things done. He was a one man Judge. He pondered to no man or party, but conducted the affairs of the county in a strictly business way and as his best judgment dictated. We congratulate the young man on his splendid record.

John A. Barry was duly qualified as the Mayor of this city at a meeting of the Council Monday night. Mr. Barry is a public spirited citizen, and has been connected with the public business of the city in one way and another for the past twenty years. He ought to carry something under his hat that will put new life into things here.

Morris Beard is "Johnnie on the spot" with one of the best statements he has ever published. The Bank of Hardinsburg & Trust Company, is a credit to any community and is an institution that is growing and building every year. May it still continue to grow and prosper as the years roll on.

Some of the newspapers in the State are trying to boost James B. McCreary, for Governor, but the News thinks Ben Johnson will show up in the lead, because he represents the young life of the State and possesses the ability to do things.

V. G. Babbage has filed his petition in the Circuit Court at Hardinsburg, contesting the right of Jesse R. Eskridge to the office of County Attorney, on account of his being a citizen of Owensesboro, Ky., for the past ten years.

One of the important questions to be brought before the Legislature of the State at its present session, is that of improving the public roads throughout Kentucky.

The Republicans were installed in office at Hardinsburg last Monday, all excepting Lee Walls, the Circuit Court Clerk, who is a Democrat.

If you have already broken your resolution, make it over again right now, don't wait till next year.

BIG SPRING

Has Large Number Of Home-Comers For Christmas Week.

House-Party At Strother's.

If you want the best flour buy the Lewisport BEST patent flour.

Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Hardaway, of Minot, N. D., and Mrs. Harry Kemper, of Irvington, spent last week with Mrs. Julia Clarkson.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Moorman and son, of Quincy, Ill., spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Moorman and Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Stith.

Raymond Moorman, of Louisville, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Achilles Moorman.

Charles Crider, who is attending school at Bowling Green, was home for Christmas.

Miss Zelma Strother entertained a house party last week from Friday till Sunday. Her guests were Misses Fannie Hardaway, Verlie and Verle Moorman, Misses Edgar and Pierce Hardaway.

Messrs. Batt and O'Meara, of Louisville, were with B. S. Clarkson Thursday night.

Miss Bush, of Louisville, spent last week with her parents.

C. F. Morris, of Louisville, was home last week.

Gabe Meador has returned from Elizabethtown.

Charlie Craycroft spent last week in Lebanon.

Mrs. E. A. Strother leaves for Owensesboro the fifth for a visit to Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Strother.

Miss Ada Meador is visiting friends in Elizabethtown.

Miss Lidy Clarkson went to Louis ville last week for a visit of two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Will Hungerland.

Mrs. Ada Meador lost a house on her farm by fire Thursday night.

Miss Lee King spent last week at Garfield.

Miss Zelma Strother leaves the fifth for Louisville for a few weeks after which she goes to Owensesboro to visit her brother.

Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Witt have returned from a visit to Louisville.

Misses Zelma Strother, Verlie and Verle Moorman entertained on Friday evening from 7:30 till 12 with a Father Time Party for the visitors of the town. The house was decorated with red and green confetti and clocks were hung around to carry out the idea. From the center of the room was hung two red bells to ring out the old year and in the new. Each guest on arriving was given a red and green envelope. (Of course they wondered what they were to do with it.) Then began a hunt for the "hours of the day", which were hidden in the "field of time", which was a lower room. Card boxes, each holding a number from one to twelve, were hidden here, there and everywhere, and each guest found twelve squares they were to place them in their envelope and stop the hunt until all had found twelve, of course they found duplicate numbers, but the prize, a calepitar, was given to the one presenting the most perfect clock to Father Time. Then they had a large circle of paper on a sheet bearing the numbers of a clock's hours. One guest at a time was blind-folded and given a single number and required to pin his slip of paper over the duplicate number on the clock. There was merry fun and laughter over the "wasted time" spent in that way. Refreshments were served and as the time was getting twelve, cards on the letters, "Happy New Year" were lighted in the hall, to bid the guests good night.

All the good qualities of Ely's Cream Balm are found in Liquid Cream Balm, which is intended for use in atomizers.

That it is a wonderful remedy for Nasal Catarrh is proved by an ever-increasing mass of testimony. It does not dry out nor rasp the tender air-passages. It allays the inflammation and goes straight to the root of the disease.

Obstinate old cases have yielded in a few weeks. All druggists, 75c., including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 50 Warren Street, New York.

Subscribe!

Coal Coal

Have you laid in your Winter Coal? If not you had better do it now while weather is good and price low.

City Coal Co.,

JAS. M. LEWIS, Prop.

Cloverport, :: Ky.

Office, Gregory & Co.

Phone 35-W

CLOSING OUT SALE OF THOROUGHBRED Stallions, Horses and Colts

We have sold our farm and must dispose of some stock. We have decided to sell all our Stallions, also Registered brood Mares and Colts. Write us and let us give you full information. We also have several horses and colts unregistered.

We have a HERD OF JERSEYS

Write at once as we must sell in the next 60 days. We can please you and will be glad to turn our business at Hardinsburg over to purchaser here. :: :: :: :: :: ::

Beard Bros., Hardinsburg, Kentucky

HARNED.

If you want the best flour buy the Lewisport BEST patent flour.

Noah Weatherford, of Louisville, spent Christmas here with Mrs. John Weatherford.

If you owe your taxes you had better pay now and save costs.

Mrs. Jesse Nix and baby spent Saturday at Garfield with Mrs. Sylvester Thorhill.

Crit Truman, of Fordsville, is here.

Miss Mary Ellen Kennedy, of Louisville, is home.

It will pay you to visit Irvington and attend Newton Gardner's great clearance sale.

Robert Weatherford went to Hardinsburg Thursday.

Several attended the social at the home of Mr. Nick Webster Wednesday night and had a pleasant time.

S-U-B-S-C-R-I-B-E

Governor Blackburn.

The retirement of ex-Senator J. C. S. Blackburn from the position of governor of the canal zone is causing the suggestion to be made in some quarters that he be given the nomination for governor as a favor. "Joe" is a long and used political life. "Old Joe," as he is affectionately called by his political friends, has a strong hold on the Democrats of Kentucky, who would be glad to further honor him. He is past the allotted span of three score years and ten, but when we saw him about a month ago he showed that he was in the best of health and as vigorous of mind and body as he was when he represented this district in Congress.

If you owe your taxes you had better pay now and save costs.

Mrs. Jesse Nix and baby spent Saturday at Garfield with Mrs. Sylvester Thorhill.

Crit Truman, of Fordsville, is here.

Miss Mary Ellen Kennedy, of Louisville, is home.

It will pay you to visit Irvington and attend Newton Gardner's great clearance sale.

Robert Weatherford went to Hardinsburg Thursday.

Several attended the social at the home of Mr. Nick Webster Wednesday night and had a pleasant time.

"A Picture of Father and Mother"

How it would delight your children, how it would please your friends.

Brabant Studio Cloverport, Ky.

Irvington, Ky., Every Tuesday

and nearly two years before the election. A great many issues may arise and many new alignments made before that time. Besides, the Democrats in the coming Legislature may do many foolish acts as well as those outside of it and thereby make a nomination not worth shucks. The State has many eminent men who would fit the gubernatorial chair well, and, being optimistic, we feel that everything will work together for good to those who love the Lord and Democracy.—Lexington Gazette.

Notice To Parties That Are Owing Taxes

My term of office has expired and I am now preparing the list of delinquents for advertisement, and as soon as finished I will deliver same to the printer, and my instructions to him will be advertise, and that will be additional cost to you. I am going to treat all alike, so if you don't want your property advertised, settle without delay.

I am, very truly,

MIILT MILLER, :: Ex-Sheriff B. C.

III, have returned home from a visit to Mr. Wm. Embry, who is improving. Richard Wathen is ill at the Burn's house.

Mrs. Mattie Smith is improving after serious illness.

John Babbage, Jr., of Huntington, W. Va., was in Owensboro on business yesterday. He will return to his territory this week.

Mrs. Plank and daughter, Jesse Kathrine, of Owensboro, have been visiting at the home of Master Mechanic, P. D. Plank.

Wesley Steele fell on the ice last week in Owensboro and suffered a broken arm. Mr. Steele is improving and will be home this week.

A. H. Russell, of Pennsylvania, is here in the interest of the drilling of the new gas well of the Kentucky and Indiana National Gas Company.

J. W. McQuaid, of Louisville, Ind., spent the holidays here. This is Mr. McQuaid's first visit home for eight years. He is recuperating for the news.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bowmer were home last week. Mrs. Bowmer will visit Mrs. Chas. Moorman in Versailles before going to Louisville to spend the remainder of the winter.

Notice—Ben Davis, Cleverport's expert cleaner of men and ladies clothing is still located in the rear of Dr. Lightfoot's office. All work guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or no charge asked.

Livery, Feed and Hatch Stable, Corn, Hay, Straw and all kinds of Mifl for sale at reasonable prices. Feed delivered to any part of the city.

Food works fruits and candies at the English Kitchen.

Subscribe for the News this week, don't put it off.

Shoes that give comfort and satisfaction at Sipple's.

Mrs. Jas. Skillman, of Owensboro, has returned home.

Fresh oysters at the English Kitchen served in any style.

Mrs. J. Byrne Severs will entertain the girls' club this afternoon.

John Taul, of Mattingly, was visiting his daughter, Mrs. Joe Muller.

Just received a nice line of Hamilton Brown's good shoes at Sipple's.

Mrs. Tanner and son, have arrived from Winchester to be with Prof. Tanner.

Mrs. Fred Ferry and daughter, Annie Murray, are visiting in Hardinsburg.

Edward Morrison has returned from Evansville after a visit to Edwin McGinness.

Mr. Donaldson, of Bowling Green, was the guest of Miss Mary Jarboe Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Straus, wife of the well-known attorney of Louisville, died Monday.

Wm. Martin, of Greenville, visited Miss Mayme Dehaven during the holidays.

Chas. Goering, of Hawesville, was the guest of Miss Mayme Dehaven last week.

Mrs. Ella Gregory has returned to Brandenburg after a visit to Mrs. Lucy Gregory.

Miss Ida Dutschke, of Holt, and Miss Esther Payne, have been visiting the Misses Pate.

Jesse T. Walls, Stephensport, spent Christmas with his aunt Mrs. Rachel Foster, Evansville.

Miss Florence Lewis attended the funeral of her cousin, Frank Rhodes at Kirk last Thursday.

Morrison & Catehron, dentists, office downstairs, 244 Fourth street, both phones, Owensboro, Ky.

Brabrandt, photographer, will be in Irvington every first and third Tuesday and Wednesday each month.

Miss Lillie Alexander, of St. Louis, spent Christmas at home with her father, Perry Alexander, at Custer.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Walls, of Obion.

(A 50-cent bottle of

Scott's Emulsion

given in half-teaspoon doses four times a day, mixed in its bottle, will last a year-old baby nearly a month, and four bottles over three months, and will make the baby strong and well and will lay the foundation for a healthy, robust boy or girl.

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS

Read 10c, name of paper and this ad. for our beautiful Savings Bank and Child's Sketch Book. Each book contains a Good Luck Penny.

SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, N. Y.

Mrs. Sagerser, of Missouri.

FACIAL NEURALGIA.

Mrs. C. S. Sagerser, 1311 Woodlawn Ave., Kansas City, Mo., writes:

"I feel it a duty to you and to others that may be afflicted like myself, to speak for Peruva."

"My trouble first came after a grippe eight or nine years ago, a gathering in my head and neuralgia. I suffered from it all the time, and it was so severe, it was hardly affected for the last two years. I think from your description of internal neuralgia that I must have had that also. I suffered very severely."

"Nothing ever relieved me like Peruva. It keeps me from taking cold."

"With the exception of some disease now I am feeling perfectly cured. I am forty-six years old."

"I feel that words are inadequate to express my praise for Peruva."

Stomach Trouble Seven Years.

Mrs. T. L. and R. H. B., Hickory Point, Tenn., write:

"Having been afflicted with catarrh and stomach trouble for seven years, and after having tried four different doctors they only relieved me for a little while. I was induced to try Peruva, and I am now entirely well."

Man-a-lin an Ideal Laxative.

Ask Your Druggist for Free Peruva Almanac for 1910.

An Odd Way to Fish.

The natives of Tutuila, one of the islands of Oceania, have a peculiar method of catching fish. At a given signal all the inhabitants of the village assemble on the sea-shore to the number of about 200 persons, each one carrying a branch of the coco palm. With these in their hands they plunge into the water and swim a certain distance from the shore, when they turn, form a compact semicircle, each one holding his palm branch in the water, thus making a sort of sieve. The leader of the party then gives a signal, and the fishers all approach the seashore gradually in perfect order, driving before them a number of fishes that are cast on the sand and killed with sticks.

If you want the best flour buy the Lewisport BEST patent flour.

Warning.

"No. Alco," the fond mamma, "you should not marry Mr. Leftover. If you do you will regret it."

"Why, mamma? Because he is a widower?"

"Not exactly. But he will not make a good husband."

"Why, mamma? Everybody knows that while his wife was alive he was a shilling model for all the other husbands in town. He never drank, smoked or swore; he never stayed out late at night; he never danced with any other woman. He is simply perfect."

"Now, now, my child. And I want to tell you that a man who has been held down that way during his first marriage will know how to discipline such rules the second time?"—Life.

Not So Bad as it Sounds.

In a down-town cafe two old college friends met by chance. They had not met before in several years and were properly delighted. In the course of conversation one who had been long absent from town, brought him of a mutual friend.

"Tell me," said he, "how I can reach Jim. I'd like to look him up tonight."

"My boy," said the other, "if you want to reach Jim you'll have to telephone to —, an undertaker on Sixth avenue."

"What! You shock me. Jim dead! I am sorry indeed to hear it."

"I am sorry indeed to hear it. He's a friend of the undertaker and has rooms near by. He has no telephone, but has an arrangement for using the undertaker's, as the place is open at all hours. Just telephone the undertaker, and the message will be carried around to Jim."—New York Globe.

When He Feels Safe.

Bacon—A man feels more secure when his views are endorsed by others. Egbert—Especially so if the man in question is a baseball umpire.—Young Statesman.

Out on Tap.

Fuddy—Did you ever notice that successful men are generally baldy?

Duddy—Certainly. They came out on top.—Boston Transcript.

Subscribe today.

Wants.

FOR SALE A good business situated in a well-located part of town and paying well an annual invested. Apply to Mr. G. B. Babing, Attorney, Cloverport, Ky.

FOR SALE—One new mill and three-power Huber Traction Engine in first-class condition. Price $1,500.00. Address Mr. W. S. Smith.

WANTED—Carpenter, a good location is open in a thriving town for a contractor carpenter who is married, sober and knows his business. For further information address X Y Z, care New.

FOR SALE—1 lot on Main Street, in Irvington, 100 feet front, for farm or residence address W. M. Davis, Woodbury, Ky.

FOR SALE—Farm containing 10 acres, well-tilled, 90 acres cultivation, 12 acres timber, 100 feet front on a public road, 200 feet from a public road. For full particulars address W. C. Sherman, Glendale, Ky.

Railway Mail Clerks Wanted

The Government Pays Railway Mail Clerks $800 to $1,200 and Other Employees up to $2,500

Annually

Uncle Sam will hold spring examinations throughout the country for Railway Mail Clerks, Custom House Clerks, Stenographers, Bookkeepers, Departmental Clerks and other Government Officials. Thousands of appointments will be made. Any man or woman over 18, in city or country can get instruction and free information by writing at once to the Bureau of Instruction, Hamlin Building, Rochester, N. Y.

The Bargain Sale You

... HAVE BEEN LOOKING FOR ...

Reduction in Cloaks

Children's Cloaks $1.50 Reduced to

$1.00

Children's Cloaks $2.50 Reduced to 1.50

Children's Cloaks $3.50 Reduced to

2.50

Children's Cloaks $4.00 Reduced to 3.50

Children's Cloaks $5.00 Reduced to 7.00

Blue Trilby Bear Cloaks, age 4, $6.00 Reduced to 4.50

Ladies' Cloaks $10.00 Reduced to 7.00

Ladies' Cloaks $12.50 Reduced to 10.00

Big Reduction in Furs

Come Now!

J. C. NOLTE & BRO.
CLOVERPORT, KY.

The Lexington Herald

Leading Morning Daily
of Central Kentucky

$5 BY THE YEAR $5

By Mail When Paid in Advance to January, 1910

This offer holds good until January 15, 1910. After this date the rate will be $6.00 per year, or 60 cents per month for periods of less than 6 months.

In clubs of five, 5, or more the rate of $4.50 is allowed, but this applies to new subscriptions only. No commission is allowed to agents or others on this rate. Address

THE LEXINGTON HERALD
Lexington, Kentucky

"Ladies' Home Journal"

At The News Office

Statement of the Condition of

The Bank of Hardinsburg and Trust Co.

Haddinsburg, Ky.

At the close of business, December 31, 1909

Resources

Notes and Bills	$305,974	51
Cash in Safe	22,008	07
Cash in other Banks	27,670	33
Stocks and Bonds	13,107	61
Banking House and Lot	1,800	00
Other Real Estate	136	79
Furniture and Fixtures	400	00
Total . . .	$371,097	31

Liabilities

Capital Stock paid in	$ 50,000	00
Surplus & undivided profits	13,602	49
Dividend No. 39, 4 percent	2,000	00
Amount Due Depositors	305,494	82
Total . . .	$371,097	31

We have now been a bank in this county nineteen and one-half years. We have grown from a small beginning, a large and successful business. We have endeavored to keep abreast of the times, providing for ourselves every modern appliance and up-to-date system to facilitate our work, providing for our depositors every safe guard known for their protection and security. We have given freely to every deserving charity, and contributed liberally to every public enterprise. We enjoy the confidence of the people of this county and take this opportunity to thank our patrons who have contributed to make the year 1909 the best in our history.

Very respectfully, M. H. Beard, Cashier

PAID IN FULL

Novelized From Eugene
Walter's Great Play
... By...
JOHN W. HARDING

Copyright, 1908, by G. W. Dillingham Co.

CHAPTER XXIV.

"M" see you sir, I told him you were in, but I would not come in and asked to let you know he was downstairs."

"Tell him it's all right. I'll see him."

"Yes, if he doesn't mind."

The landlord went out, gathering from the visitor's unusual request and her boarder's report that there had been trouble between them. Jimny pushed away the book he had been reading and leaned back in his chair to await his former friend's coming.

Brooks shuffled rather than walked in. He did not offer to shake hands, but, with a subdued "Hello, Jimny," seated himself on the edge of his chair. In the few days he occupied as his own, then he seemed to forget where he was, sank back, shrinking into his overcoat, and sat as though stupefied, twisting his fist in his hands slowly and mechanically.

Smith was shocked at the change in his friend. His hands were cold and thin, and the eyes, which were almost expressionless, were deep sink in the sockets. There was stolidness on his chin; his formerly wistful plastered hair was disheveled.

"Boy, you're ill," said Jimny with concern. "Let me get a blanket for you."

He rose and produced a decanter of whisky, but his visitor declined, this time with a wan flickering smile of apreciation.

"No, thanks, Jimny. I don't feel like it just now. I've been drinking too much of late. I haven't eaten since last night, I think."

"For heaven's sake!" exclaimed Jimny.

Brooks would have restrained him, but he was out of the door and bounding downstairs three steps at a time. Brooks followed him, and Jimny, who was still in his chair, heard him go, and the wind cut to the bone.

Jimny had begun to fall. A high wind, blowing apparently from all quarters, heralded the flakes and propelled them with stinging force into the faces of the people in the streets. Brooks had to stop and wait for him to catch his breath, and then went on, and the wind cut to the bone. Yet he had scuttled back to his room and awoke again from Smith's above. He turned up his coat collar and pulled his hat over his eyes. More than once he had thought he was going to follow the wretched slob with his coat and awoke again from Smith's above.

"Jimny, you're awfully good," he sighed.

"Oh, no-one of that," protested Smith. "Tell me what brought you here. What can I do for you?"

"I don't know why I came, after all the way I acted last time."

"Never mind that. Let's forget about it."

"No, I have no right here. Jimny, I'm done for."

"How about for?"

"I am, and you'll kick me out, as I deserve. And you know, Jimny, I've done again. I'm a thief a second time, and again for a woman."

Smith looked grave, but he said nothing.

"What? You don't get up and kick me? Well, well! I suppose it's just like you, but I rather hoped you would. You're the only man I could trust. But I'll tell you how I got it. I'll tell you how I got it. Jimny, I'm no body can I depend on."

"Better try a sandwich first," suggested Smith. "There's no hurry."

"Thanks, I think I will. That's better."

He ate three sandwiches ravenously, washing them down with water.

"There isn't a whole lot to relate," he said. "You can fill in the details for yourself. I tried barking the pounces again; then I stole from the bank. There was no one there, but there was at the door four days ago. I didn't turn up there that day, and I haven't been there since, but, of course, the game is up. I wandered about, trying to forget my troubles till all my money was gone. Then I sobered up, and I saw that this time there's no one to turn to. The police would be fired, even if I had the funds to make my steals good. They'd get me wherever I hid myself, that's sure. They must be looking for me now. And, O God, I can't face it!"

He raised himself to his full height, as though he made no effort to hide or wipe away his tears.

"I knew I was going headlong to hell—knew what I was doing—saw the certain punishment—yet couldn't stop myself. And now I have reached the mouth of the pit!"

He shuddered, writhed in agony of torture, turning his pitiful, streaming eyes upon Smith.

"Oh, Jimny, if you would only kill me and end it all," he moaned. "Oh, if I only had the courage to kill myself!"

Smith, greatly agitated, looked at the miserable man in perplexity.

"I wish I could help you, Joe," he said. "But this time I don't think you can be helped."

"It isn't possible. There's nothing you could do. I'm done for. It's my own fault," he sobbed. "I brought it all on myself. I have been weak—oh,

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country more dangerous than any other. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, heart failure, or apoplexy are often the result of kidney trouble. The great kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney poison to the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, brick-dust or sediment in the head, ached back, lame back, dimness of eyes, loss of speech, or the kidneys themselves break down to a cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys. A better health in that organ is obtained quickest by proper treatment of the kidneys. Swamp-Root corrects this ability to the kidney, and cures the disease and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up at night, during the night.

The quick and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. A trial will convince you.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. Money will have about both sent by mail.

Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. When writing money, send this great paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root. If you do you will be disappointed.

weak and a fool. And now I've come to this. No, nobody's to blame but myself—unless it's Emma."

He rose to go.

"Shake hands with me, Jimny," he begged. "It's the hand of a true friend." Jimny did as he was bid and said to take it his friendship once, when it was honest, and it's the last time I'll ever ask you to do anything for me. You'll never see me again."

Smith grasped the hand held out to him, and his pressure was more eloquent than words. Jimny's eyes, which could have been, could find no phrases adequate to express them, so remained silent, but he slipped into the wretched man's pocket as Brooks passed out of the door a bundle of banknotes that he had taken without counting or saving.

Snow had begun to fall. A high wind, blowing apparently from all quarters, heralded the flakes and propelled them with stinging force into the faces of the people in the streets. Brooks had to stop and wait for Jimny to catch his breath, and then went on, and the wind cut to the bone.

Jimny had scuttled back to his room and awoke again from Smith's above. He turned up his coat collar and pulled his hat over his eyes. More than once he had thought he was going to follow the wretched slob with his coat and awoke again from Smith's above.

"Jimny, you're awfully good," he sighed.

"Oh, no-one of that," protested Smith. "Tell me what brought you here. What can I do for you?"

"I don't know why I came, after all the way I acted last time."

"Never mind that. Let's forget about it."

"No, I have no right here. Jimny, I'm done for."

"How about for?"

"I am, and you'll kick me out, as I deserve. And you know, Jimny, I've done again. I'm a thief a second time, and again for a woman."

Smith looked grave, but he said nothing.

"What? You don't get up and kick me? Well, well! I suppose it's just like you, but I rather hoped you would. You're the only man I could trust. But I'll tell you how I got it. I'll tell you how I got it. Jimny, I'm no body can I depend on."

"Better try a sandwich first," suggested Smith. "There's no hurry."

"Thanks, I think I will. That's better."

He ate three sandwiches ravenously, washing them down with water.

"There isn't a whole lot to relate," he said. "You can fill in the details for yourself. I tried barking the pounces again; then I stole from the bank. There was no one there, but there was at the door four days ago. I didn't turn up there that day, and I haven't been there since, but, of course, the game is up. I wandered about, trying to forget my troubles till all my money was gone. Then I sobered up, and I saw that this time there's no one to turn to. The police would be fired, even if I had the funds to make my steals good. They'd get me wherever I hid myself, that's sure. They must be looking for me now. And, O God, I can't face it!"

He raised himself to his full height, as though he made no effort to hide or wipe away his tears.

"I knew I was going headlong to hell—knew what I was doing—saw the certain punishment—yet couldn't stop myself. And now I have reached the mouth of the pit!"

He shuddered, writhed in agony of torture, turning his pitiful, streaming eyes upon Smith.

"Oh, Jimny, if you would only kill me and end it all," he moaned. "Oh, if I only had the courage to kill myself!"

Smith, greatly agitated, looked at the miserable man in perplexity.

"I wish I could help you, Joe," he said. "But this time I don't think you can be helped."

"It isn't possible. There's nothing you could do. I'm done for. It's my own fault," he sobbed. "I brought it all on myself. I have been weak—oh,

"Yes, Emma, it's me, or what is left of me," he said.

"What brings you here? How did you get in?" she demanded, with frightened eyes.

"I'm here to get out. You have nothing to fear from me," he assured her. "I'm going on a long journey—yes, a long long journey, and I've come to say good-bye. You'll never see me again. I shall be no more trouble to anybody."

"There is no need to come here. I cannot receive you. You must go."

"Emma, I know how bad I was to you, how?"

"I cannot listen to your excuses. It is useless to recall the past. Please go."

"I have no wish to recall it. I have no right—ask it of a dying man. You cannot refuse."

"You have been dead long years to me, and I have prayed God that I

His hand encountered the roll of bills Smith had slipped in there. For a moment a gleam of hope flashed its cheering ray as he contemplated the money. There was enough to enable him to get away.

His dependency refused the comfort. What was the use? To attempt escape now would be to fall into the hands of the police sleuths who must be on the lookout for him. He surmised that the weather had driven the police from the town, and he intended him to slip into the house unnoticed or unrecognized. No he had done with life and all its worries and disappointments. Better death than the consequences of living. It would have to die at some time or other anyway.

He poured out a large glass of whisky and swallowed it. The fiery stuff warmed him all over. He set down to think, and his thoughts took the shape of a review of his life. He had been a good boy, a son to a kind mother, a brother to a sister, and a nephew to anybody else—never. Brought up by a maiden aunt, who had taken him in when as a young boy he had lost his widowed mother, he had repaid her with waywardness and indifference. In his boyhood he had been a rascal, when he needed aid and he was a rascal, but he had kept his earnings satisfactorily, doing out to her, a few dollars at irregular intervals, and he was glad when she had ceased to be a burden by dying in a hospital.

He had been a good boy, a brother to a sister, and a nephew to anybody else—never. Brought up by a maiden aunt, who had taken him in when as a young boy he had lost his widowed mother, he had repaid her with waywardness and indifference. In his boyhood he had been a rascal, when he needed aid and he was a rascal, but he had kept his earnings satisfactorily, doing out to her, a few dollars at irregular intervals, and he was glad when she had ceased to be a burden by dying in a hospital.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

As he summed it all up and contemplated himself as a pariah, a hunted man at bay amid the wreck of hope, love, life, friends, duty, and the rest of his earthly possessions, he brooded over the way in which he had been spurned and cast out by those who might have loved and honored him. His tears rolled from his eyes again.

Save $75! BY PURCHASING ONE OF OUR

FULL BOOKKEEPING COURSE SCHOLARSHIPS

for only $25. The regular price is $100. Time to bring or mail this advertisement to us within five days after seeing it and telling us where they saw it, we will be able to have one reserved at the low rate of $25. Books and stationery are included. No time limit. If not ready now, buy one for future use.

G. W. Schwartz

LOW ONE WAY COLINIST RATES

California, Oregon and Washington, Arizona, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Wyoming, Mexico, Alberta, Saskatchewan and a few points in Texas

For tickets on sale

Sept. 15 to Oct. 15, 1909

—BY THE—

SOUTHERN RAILWAY

Inquire of any Southern Railway agent or write me for complete information

J. C. BEAM, JR., A. G. P. A.

ST. LOUIS, MO.

Do It Now! Subscribe

RURAL TELEPHONES

Mr. Farmer, are you interested? If so, call on the manager of the Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Company and have him explain the special "Farmers Line" rate.

That which is common cannot be made unique, but which is unique cannot be numbered.

I commend to you one place all are of equal value, and that is the telephone.

What is more wisdom than all they have to offer? What is more experience than all they have to teach? What is more skill than all they have to learn?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more knowledge than all they have to impart?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

What is more pleasure than all they have to give? What is more happiness than all they have to share?

</

